Parentally-Placed Private School Students with Disabilities: OSEP Question and Answer

June 30, 2020
NCSI provides TA that builds capacity for lasting impact through a focus on four high-impact transformation priorities and the complementary knowledge and skills needed to achieve them.

HIGH-IMPACT TRANSFORMATION PRIORITIES

1. Maximize leadership to align general and special education systems to close equity gaps
2. Optimize general supervision, accountability and support systems to improve results
3. Operationalize evidence-based practices for teaching and learning
4. Actualize improvement for students with disabilities in low-performing schools

FOUNDATIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS TO ACHIEVE TRANSFORMATION PRIORITIES

NCSI helps states to develop and deepen the foundational knowledge and skills required for sustaining impact in each priority:

| (a) Data Literacy: Collecting necessary data and determining quality, understanding what the data mean, and deriving sensible data-based conclusions to guide decision-making. |
| (b) Research-Informed Practice: Providing effective TA&PD on using high-leverage evidence-based practices (EBPs) for students with disabilities and supporting implementation of EBP frameworks. |
| (c) Stakeholder & Family Engagement: Meaningfully engaging diverse stakeholders and strengthening the role of family members in shaping educational systems and decisions. |
| (d) Systems Coherence: Designing interconnected policies and allocating resources to enable efficiency and effectiveness in developing and implementing strategic improvement plans. |
Session Objectives

Meaningful Consultation
Consultation

• The child find process and how parentally-placed private school children suspected of having a disability can participate equitably, including how parents, teachers, and private school officials will be informed of the process.

• The determination of the proportionate share of Federal funds available to serve parentally-placed private school children with disabilities, including the determination of how the proportionate share of those funds was calculated.

• How the consultation process among the LEA, private school officials, and representatives of parents of parentally-placed private school children with disabilities, including how the process will operate throughout the school year to ensure that parentally-placed children with disabilities identified through the child find process can meaningfully participate in special education and related services.

• How, where, and by whom special education and related services will be provided, including a discussion of the types of services – including direct services and alternate service delivery mechanisms as well as how the services will be apportioned if funds are insufficient to serve all children – and how and when those decisions will be made.

• How, if the LEA representatives disagree with the views of the private school officials on the provision of services or the types of services, whether provided directly or through a contract, the LEA will provide to the private school officials a written explanation of the reasons why the LEA chose not to adopt the recommendations of the private school officials.
